Support the Retirement Fund for Religious.

A donor writes, "Your flyer touched my heart— seeing the retired religious, such memories surfaces. Do you remember the sisters, brothers, or religious order priests who made a positive difference in your life? Today many are elderly and need assistance. Their religious communities struggle to meet retirement needs while continuing to serve the People of God.

INSPIRATIONAL WORDS

"Never be afraid of loving the Blessed Virgin too much. You can never love her more than Jesus did."

St. Maximilian Kolbe

PASTOR'S PEN

"IMITATORS OF CHRIST"

We are on a journey to meet our God in his holy mountain. Our strength is sustained with the bread of life, which is Jesus, our saviour, at the Eucharistic Banquet. To have real nourishment of our souls, we need to be in state of grace and have proper disposition at the Eucharistic Table. And the best way for such encounter is to live a life of imitation of Christ, the Lord.

St. Paul had it right when he wrote " So be imitators of God, as beloved children, and live in love, as Christ loved us and handed himself over for us as a sacrificial offering to God for a fragrant aroma" (Eph. 5:2). We can't be Christlike if we choose not to love and live at peace with one another. To love genuinely is to be able to forgive, and to overcome anger and bitterness. Anger and bitterness lead to grudges, malicious acts, revengeful attitudes and disunity that hinders sacramental grace. However, we need the sacramental grace for needed strength as we journey through. For this reason, St. Paul admonished us not to grieve the Holy Spirit of God.

We grieve the Holy Spirit of God and loose our sacramental grace at the Lord's banquet when we are filled with furry, anger and bitterness. " Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with which you were sealed for redemption. All bitterness, furry, anger, shouting and reviling must be removed from you, along with all malice"(Eph. 4:30ff). May we pray that we may always approach the Lord's Eucharistic Table with joyful heart and clean mind of love for all. Peace
Fr Ussher
