Breakfast with the seminarians will follow in the Parish Hall and everyone is welcome. Please let the parish know if you will be attending Mass and breakfast by signing the signup sheets on the bulletin boards, so there is enough food! We strongly encourage everyone to attend, so that we may show our support and encouragement for our Seminarians. Please make every effort to attend!

Mary Gardens: Immaculate Conception's Mary Garden- as you know from last Fall's great work by the Boy Scouts, our Mary Garden has a different look this Spring. Gone are the planting pots and gravel mulch; now everything is directly planted in the ground. Roses, clematis, and boxwoods form the nucleus and various perennials and annuals fill in the rest. The statue of the Virgin, in memory of Tyler Wilson, stands watch benevolently. Just to the west, an addition has been made; a butterfly bush, donated in memory of young Phillip Werner. As its name suggests, the plant's flowers are a butterfly magnet. All are welcome to stop by and pray or meditate at this beautiful garden.

Remember the unborn baby each of us chose, named, and prayed for last year? Have you celebrated your child's birthday yet? Because of your prayers, a child was saved...

“Please continue to pray for the most fragile of God's creations, the unborn. Especially those in danger of abortion.

THE DIOCESE OF JEFFERSON CITY

Office of the Bishop

May 19-20, 2012

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On the weekend of Pentecost, May 26-27, the parishes of our Diocese will participate in a combined collection for the Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC) and The Catholic University of America (CUA) in Washington, D.C. The Collection for the CCC provides grants to spread the Good News through Internet podcasts, television, radio, print media and Catholic social media networks. The Catholic University of America is unique as the national university of the Catholic Church and the only higher education institution founded by the U.S. Bishops and chartered by the Vatican.

Through the Catholic Communication Campaign, the words of the Holy Father in his 2011 World Communications Day Message are brought to life. He encouraged young people to "make good use of their presence in the digital world." The CCC Collection supported this goal by funding a Virtual Pilgrimage to World Youth Day last year. The Virtual Pilgrimage, which was available on Facebook, allowed participants to create a virtual faith community through animated representations of themselves, or avatars. Online participants were able to exchange videos, blog postings and photos.

CUA, as the national Catholic university, has a special responsibility to educate future leaders for our Church and our Nation. So, in a way, The Catholic University of America belongs to all of us in the Church, regardless of where we live. Students at Catholic University receive personalized attention in a wide range of programs and are grounded in the philosophy of the Catholic intellectual tradition. As a result, these students are well prepared for success in life and ready to make a difference in today's world.

Our Diocese retains some of the proceeds from the CCC collection to support our local communication efforts, such as the radio Mass from St. Francis Xavier in Taos, the Table Talk program and the Mustard Seed radio programs in California and Moberly. This year it will help with the redesign of our diocesan Website, www.diojeffcity.org. Funds provided through the CUA collection will help underwrite the financial aid program at the university, directly benefitting students from all over the United States, including some from our Diocese.

I appeal to you today to give generously to the joint collection for the Catholic Communication Campaign and The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. Please join in the important work of bearing Christ's witness in the world by your support of Catholic communications and the CUA's mission to educate the next generation of Catholic leaders.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend John R. Gaydos
Bishop of Jefferson City
